

Mary Ellen Conaway

October 12, 1928 - April 21, 2019

On this Easter morning, With a cloudless sky. God whispered her name. It was her time to die. We prayed for God's mercy. That she would suffer no more. We prayed He would take her. That her spirit might soar. God answered our prayers. He set her free.

Now, in His presence she rests For all eternity.

On this beautiful Easter morning, Mary Ellen Conaway, went to spend eternity with Jesus, her Lord and Savior.

Mary Ellen was born on October 12, 1928 in Jonesboro, Alabama to Albert and Willie (Martin) Parsons. Mary Ellen attended Bessemer High School and Montevallo University. She was a decades-long employee of The Scribbler in Homewood, Al. Like her mother, Mary Ellen was an excellent southern style cook. She was also an accomplished seamstress. She enjoyed playing Bridge and was a member of a Bridge Club that met weekly for more than 50 years. Mary Ellen was a long standing member at Canterbury Methodist Church. She was preceded in death by brother John Parsons. She was survived by her three children, Tommy Conaway, Charlie (Angela) Conaway and Kay (Ferd)Taygan. She was a loving Grandmother to Kathleen Clements, Mackenzie Free, Martin Conaway, Mary Brennan Conaway, Nuray Bent and Shenal Taygan; great grandchildren, Dustin Clements, Jolie Free, Charlie Free, Rylie Free, Finley Free, Bodhi Bent, Wyatt Bent, Taygan Ibarra and Rainy Ibarra.
