

Maureen Lorrayne Healey

June 19, 1944 - February 21, 2023

Maureen Lorrayne Healey (nee Nevins), 78 of Hoover, Alabama, passed away after a complicated illness on Tuesday, February 21, 2023, with her loving children by her side. Maureen was born June 19, 1944, in Passaic, N.J. and raised in Nutley, N.J. She was the daughter of the late David and Margaret (Hart) Nevins and sister of the late Sharon Cowan Coombs (Thomas Coombs).

Beloved wife of Thomas M. Healey, who preceded her in 2022, Maureen's teenage sweetheart of 61 years. They raised three beautiful children in Nutley, N.J. before moving to Alabama in 2017 to spend their retirement years. She is survived by her three children, Shawn Healey and his wife Bonnie; Brian Healey and his wife Mary; and Kathleen Healey and her companion Rodney Roycroft. She is also survived by her six grandchildren, Gavin, Reid, Brielle, Robert, Emily and Kathryn, and her beloved sixteen-year-old "pup", Gracie. Maureen was a stay-at-home mom until 1989 when she became Administrative Assistant to VP for Enrollment Management at Bloomfield College. Known affectionately as "Mom" by her work-study student assistants, she retired after an enjoyable twenty-five-year career.

Favorite pastimes included "gourmet" cooking, antique shopping and weekend dinner dates with dear friends Susan and Jack Farr. Dogs, ever-present in the household, were "family" members always receiving great love and attention. She also kept herself busy after retirement managing a small online business selling jewelry and antiques. She was an avid reader, building an impressive collection of novels, which were all read and enjoyed. In lieu of flowers, please consider honoring her by donating to the Nutley Public Library in her name (make check payable Nutley Public Library c/o Friends of the Nutley Public Library, 93 Booth Drive Nutley, NJ 07110).

There will be a graveside service at Glendale Cemetery in Bloomfield, New Jersey at a later date. A tree will be planted in the memory of Thomas and Maureen Healey in their hometown of Nutley
