

Maxine T. Hallman

September 1, 1938 - June 26, 2021

Maxine Thompson Hallman of Vance, Alabama, went to be with the Lord on June 26th, 2021, at the age of 82. Maxine was the first child born to Thurman and Lavell Thompson. She was born in Brookwood, Alabama, where she spent her childhood. As a child, she was raised during a time that was difficult for most families and did her part to make sure their needs were met. As a mother, she never lost that desire to provide for her own family. The love she gave to all was her greatest attribute. She was always loving, kind, humble and caring. Her love for her family was immeasurable. Her families love for her, and gratefulness to her, will live forever...

If you knew Maxine, you were fortunate. As her children, we were blessed.

Maxine was preceded in death by her father Thurman Thompson, her mother Lavell Thompson, her brother Austin Thompson, and her husband Jerry Hallman.

Maxine is survived by her daughter Teresa Jones (Hueytown), son Ted Vanderburg (Robin) of Alliance, son Tim Vanderburg (Gay) of Adger, and daughter Tommie Barnhill (Lakeview)
