

Michael Kenneth Flowers

January 28, 1948 - October 18, 2022

Michael Kenneth Flowers, known to others as Ken or Kenny, died at home surrounded by family on October 18, 2022. Ken was born to his beloved parents, Marion and Lucille, on January 28, 1948. He spent a happy childhood playing ball with his brother and best friend, Andy. Kenny was senior class president of the Bessemer High Class of 1966. He married his college sweetheart, Sandi, August 9, 1969, and they spent the next 53 years laughing together. Ken spent his life working in business management, coaching girls' soccer, and teaching 5th and 6th Grade Sunday School at Shades Mountain Baptist Church for 30 years. Ken leaves behind his wife and brother, three children and four grandchildren: Wendi and Shea; Tod, Kate, and Sara; and Maegan, Adam, Chloe, Lily, and James, as well as many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends. His family and friends rejoice that although Ken is gone from earth, he is now face to face with the God he so adores. If you wish to make a gift honoring Ken, his family requests donations be made to the Shades Mountain Baptist Church Children's Ministry. According to Ken's wishes, no traditional funeral services will be held.
