“ Mitchell and I grew up together. We spent a lot of time together our growing up years and high school. Mitchell's dad, Clarence, was so good to us. We went fishing and hunting and camping. One fond and funny memory was once Mitchell and I camped out at his cabin behind his house, but we both wanted to go camp at the rock over hang overlooking Shades Creek. Both our parents said No. So after we were settled in at the cabin, we snuck off to the rock ledge. The next morning both our set of parents met us walking back. Oh my goodness. It was not a good day. Mitchell and I grew up with Robert O'Neal and Ronnie Bullock, and many others. We were always doing something adventurous. God bless you Mitchell. And may God bless your family.

“ Mitchell was a great Dad and an even better Granddaddy. He was a simple kind of guy that enjoyed hunting, fishing and family. He loved with his whole heart and cannot say enough about how much he will be missed.
