

Mollie Barron Linscomb

March 26, 1928 - August 29, 2023

In Loving Memory of Mollie Barron Linscomb (March 26, 1928 - August 29, 2023) Mollie Barron Linscomb, a beacon of love, an embodiment of devotion, and a cornerstone of her community, peacefully passed away on August 29, 2023, at the age of 95. Mollie's life was a masterpiece woven with threads of love, service, and unshakable faith. Born in Friendship, LA, Mollie's journey was distinguished by her profound connections with others. Her grace, kindness, and compassionate nature left an indelible impression on everyone she encountered. Mollie was preceded in passing by her adored husband, Robert E. Linscomb, with whom she embarked on a lifetime of cherished memories and adventures. Mollie's legacy is a vibrant tapestry that continues through her beloved sister, Elaine B. Pullium of Maurice, LA; her son, Mark D. Linscomb of Elberta, AL; and her daughter, Cheryl L. Henderson, and her husband Ray. Mollie's warmth and wisdom illuminated the lives of four cherished grandchildren: Jennifer and Jeremy Degan, Nicole and Michael Watson, Tayler and Kyle Brohl, and Emily and Brock Hardy. Her boundless love extended to seven great-grandchildren: Loren, Kirsten, and Emma Degan; Callum and Isabel Watson; Bryson Brohl; and Rhett Hardy, who brought immeasurable joy to her twilight years. Mollie's professional journey led her to the classroom, where her passion for teaching flourished in Huntsville, AL. Her tireless dedication to education imprinted an enduring mark on the lives of numerous students, molding their futures and nurturing a lifelong love for learning. Upon her retirement in Foley, AL, Mollie reveled in the tranquility of the Gulf Coast. An active member of Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, her faith blossomed, and her sense of community deepened. Mollie's spirit of service transcended the church's confines, as she generously volunteered her time and energy with various civic organizations and South Baldwin General Hospital. Mollie Barron Linscomb's legacy resounds with selflessness, resilience, and boundless love. As arrangements are being made, family and friends will come together to honor her life and share the countless stories that illuminate her enduring impact. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made in Mollie's memory to [Charity Name], an organization that resonates with her values and passions. "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her." - Proverbs 31:28

Cemetery Details

Biloxi National Cemetery

400 Veterans Ave
Biloxi, MS 39531

Previous Events

Committal Service

SEP 18. 11:00 AM (CT)

Biloxi National Cemetery
400 Veterans Ave
Biloxi, MS 39531