“ Young Man in every sense of the word. I so remember him taking up jogging and burning up these community streets. Getting into shape and even running with his son to teach him his new habit and past time. A great way to spend time with your child ! He would stop and talk every time he seen us outside. I'd give him water to get his second wind. Wed talk about God and kids and Life in general . He was such a polite well mannered kid and young man. Always gracious and thankful seeing me and able to sit and catchup on babys and what was going on his life. He always had a big hug for me and an I love you and thank you for listening and sharing time with me mrs Pam ! I watched as the young handsome fella grew up before my eyes always being loving and kind and caring to whomever he met along his lifes journey. To see him become a dad and see how happy and attentive and caring he was with his children would make any parent proud ! God Bless you Nick RIP my sweet kind young friend ! Fly High In The Presence of The Father! You are missed and you are loved and you will always be remembered!!
I Love Ya buddy xoxo
Prayers to your family!
