

Mr. Normand Robert Tetreault

January 17, 1949 - January 22, 2013

Normand Robert Tetreault, 64, a resident of Mobile, Alabama, passed away on January 22, 2013 in Birmingham, Alabama as a result of a brief but courageous battle with cancer.

Normand was born on January 17, 1949, in Woonsocket, Rhode Island to Rita and Joseph Tetreault. When Normand was 9 years old, he moved with his family to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where he excelled in band percussion. Upon graduating from Stranahan High School in Ft. Lauderdale, Normand was drafted into the US Army and sent to Vietnam where he learned how perform maintenance on and fly the Hughes OH-6 Cayuse Observation Helicopter (Loach). His maintenance skills served him well as he had a long career in maintenance and developed a hobby for small engine mechanics. Normand remained a dedicated drummer and entertained family, friends, and fans with his extraordinary percussion skills.

Normand was preceded in death by his mother, Rita Gloria Desmarais Tetreault.

Normand is survived by his wife, Barbara Tetreault, his daughter, Aimee Tetreault, his brothers, Richard Tetreault and Robert Tetreault, Jr., and sister, Linda Tetreault, his father Joseph Tetreault, his four grandchildren, Chloe, Caitlin, Cara, and Cannon, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements were entrusted to McCalla Memorial Funeral Home in McCalla, Alabama. Visitation will take place on Monday, January 28, 2013 at 2:30pm until 3:00pm. The memorial service will take place following the viewing at 3:00pm. The family is requesting that, in lieu of flowers, please make donations to the American Cancer Society at www.cancer.org.
