“ Olice Headley is my favorite Aunt. Each summer during elementary school, I stayed one week with my Aunt and Uncle in Parkwood AL. Curren St. was filled with love, cousins, favorite foods, getting lost in the woods, playing with a German Shepherd named Lucky, a ride in my cousins blue Corvette, plenty of church and a good dose of discipline. She loved music, singing, good food, family and getting her hair done on Friday. She always looked her best for the Lord on Sunday. I loved her very much from an early age. Unable to say Aunt Olice as a toddler, I gave her the nickname Deke. For the next sixty years she insisted I call her Aunt Deke. During my last visit she asked to her choir music. I grabbed my phone and played recordings of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir singing the favorites Amazing Grace, It is Well with my Soul and Homeward Bound. Aunt Deke and I held hands as she sang and as I hummed through laughter and tears. Somehow, I knew that may be out last visit. Now I am comforted by that visit and the words of Homeward Bound. "Bind me not as my journey nears its end, set me free to find my calling and I'll be homeward bound." Godspeed Aunt Deke, Godspeed.

“ During one of mine and mothers(opal) visits with Aunt Deke and Aunt Sarah Nell, I ask Aunt Sarah Nell how she liked her new room? She replied"not happy". Aunt Deke immediately replied "Sarah, you can choose to be happy in the Lord every day"! What a Godly woman! Regardless of her own circumstances, she was always happy in the Lord!! She is now Happy with the Lord! I love you and I will miss you!

Being the youngest of the 10 Smith Children, I always had extra Mothers. Our Mother Liz was the best, but needed help with us younger ones. Having older Sisters was a blessing. When I was born Olice was already married, she had her own little Florence, who was more like a little sister to me, and then came Edna, and we were all little sisters. Olice was a mother to all of us. She loved nurtured all three of us the same. Those were wondering days to raise children and be children. Every weekend as they came to visit us on the Smith Farm we played all day outside only to come in to have lunch that Mommy and Olice had cooked so special for the whole Family. No one could cook like Mommy and Olice.

Olice mothered everyone loving and encouraging all of us. She was the best house cleaner of anyone in the family! That was her special gift. She loved helping others in using her gift. She was a faithful daughter in helping to take care of Mommy and Daddy in their old age. She and Oliver were always there to help when needed. Always faithful to our family.

We loved visiting her at the nursing home and bringing the doggies to come see her, so she could love on them. She always loved animals and they loved her right back. We will miss those visits. But we are so thankful she is with Jesus and out of her pain and suffering. Her joyful memories will be carried on through her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren to pass on as her memory.

We love you Olice and know you are having a great Family Reunion with all those gone on before us and Jesus is the Special Guest! You are blessed! 🙏 Julian Inez #10
