

Paul Bryant Bush

July 22, 1985 - December 30, 2023

Paul Bryant Bush is survived by his parents, Duane and Keri Bush, son Charlie Frank Bush, daughter Georgia Ann Bush, sister Leigh Ann Cannon, aunt Sue Stokes, aunt Sara Roberts, aunt Dawn Russell, aunt Carol Abercrombie and numerous cousins.

Bryant spent several years reenacting Civil War battles with his closest buddies. He was a student of history and would sit for hours talking history with anyone that would engage with him. Bryant also enjoyed nerf gun fights on the weekends with his father and kids. Bryant was dedicated to his work and took pride in doing a good job for the companies where he was employed. Bryant loved playing guitars and singing, though he would not allow anyone to video him. Most of all, Bryant loved his children with all of his heart. Bryant's life was marked with love, laughter and lyrics.

“ I meet Bryant at a reenactment many years back. He was a funny guy and a great guitar picker/ singer. I got the privilege to hang out with him through a mutual friend many times. But like life goes, I got married, had kids, and got busy with life. I haven't seen him in several years. But his infectious smile could light up the room. His jokes could make you laugh even if you were having a bad day, and His guitar picking was some of the best around. He will truly be missed. My heart breaks for his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely, Derek Ashby

“ Sorry I couldn't see you off Cowboy. You are on my mind this morning. Cowboy was the best of the best. He said his 2 cents and didn't care what anyone thought of him. The kind of person that when you heard his voice it brighten your day. I am blessed to spend a few years around me. Going to miss you Ole boy.
