“ Carl and Patsy,

Our condolences go out to you and your family. We did not know your son but saw only passion and pride when you spoke of him, like we do of all of our children. I can only imagine the wonderful man he became, raised by such devote Christian parents.

Words escape us in moments such as this; all we have is our grief, and the silent prayers that only our hearts can utter. Our prayer is that God quiets your soul during your anguish, and allows you peace knowing Randy is with our father in heaven. We love you...

Luke 20:36

Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

“ I guess was around 12 or 13 years old when Randy came along into my life. I grew up with three sisters, and he became the brother I never had. I was pretty convinced he was really only hanging around my sister so that he could have more time to play with me.

He gave me my first 12 gauge shotgun, and my first bait-casting fishing reel. He bought me an albino corn snake [that I kept under my bed so mom wouldn't find it] and taught me how to take care of it. My first motorcycle ride was on his black and purple Ninja ... and it scared me to death!

He taught me a lot of the things a 13 year old boy needs to know ... and perhaps a few things I shouldn't have known ;-) ... But, that's what good big brothers do.

Randy, thanks for being my big brother when I needed it most. I love you, and I'll miss you...

“ I remember when Randy became a part of our Praise Team at Canaan. What a godly talent this man had. He was a tremendous blessing and inspiration. Our prayers goes to Melissa and the children, Carl, Patsy, and Carla. He was a friend. He will be greatly missed. We are grateful that not only was he our friend, but also our brother in Christ.

“ My heart is broken...Melissa and Jo, thank you for being such good moms for your boys and helping them through this tragedy. Randy would be proud of you both!

Patsy and Carl, I love you dearly. I'm praying for you both.

Carla, I'm not sure anyone has ever loved a brother like you love Randy...much love to you as you navigate through this most difficult time.

And Randy, you are loved and missed more than you could have ever imagined...I will always count you as my brother. I love you.

I just saw Randy last week in passing. We exchanged "hello's and how are you doing?" That was it. Now i wished i had taken time to talk to him more. My heart hurts for everyone that knew him and loved him. To know Randy was to love him, he was such a nice guy. The entire Gamble family will be in my daily prayers. Heaven's choir has gained an anointed singer.
