“ Becky was my cousin and a great friend. She always thought of others before herself. And boy did we make some great memories with her. She was one of a kind and had her own unique personality. She was loved by many. My kids and I have been sharing memories the last few days. We have laughed and cried. The afternoon she passed I dreamed that She and I were going to meet up with my Mom. When we arrived my Mom held her hand out to take Becky's hand. I kept saying Momma take my hand. She never even acknowledged I was there. It upset me so bad, and I got angry. I woke up crying and explained to my husband what I had dreamed. He simply said Hun it just wasn't your time to go with your Mom. After I gathered myself, I realized how beautiful it was for my Mom to welcome and escort Becky right on in to heaven. I am gonna miss Becky so much just as many will. I want to thank Becky's son Larry for allowing me to spend some time with Becky today, and allowing me to fix her hair (Becky always told me I had to). Rest now Becky, no more pain and suffering. Fly high with your beautiful angel wings!!!!
