Sandra S. McClure 70 passed away peacefully February 28, 2024 at her home. She was born December 10, 1953 in Georgetown, Kentucky to the late John and Barbara Jean (Barber) Sharp. She was raised in Georgetown and later in her youth she moved to Stamping Ground, Kentucky. She was also preceded in death by her husband Michael McClure, son Shane Stinnett, and sister Jeannie Young. She is survived by her 2 Westie Terrier fur babies Sara & Abby, step son Anthony (Tony) and daughter in law Brenda McClure, step daughter Michelle Worster (Ed), step daughter Angelia Cabello (Raphael) Brother In Law Jo McClure (Jennifer) 6 Grandchildren Justin McClure, Ryan Worster, Brianna Worster, Austin Worster, Michael Abello, & Christian Cabello. Cousin Toby Murray (Terry) Nephews Dennis Polley & Bradley Polley, Will McClure, & Zach McClure. Several Great nieces & nephews. She worked at the Campbell House in Lexington, but was fortunate enough in later years to live life being home. She loved watching the Kentucky Wildcats play basketball, living in Florida and being on the beach. She loved horses and going to Keeneland horse track to watch the races. She will be sorely missed by all whom loved her and never forget her big personality, charm, beautiful smile and undying love she had for them. At her request she will be cremated and there will be no public service. At a later date her ashes and her beloved husband's ashes will be taken to the Masonic cemetery in Stamping Ground, Kentucky with a private graveside service.

The family would like to give a Special Thanks to Dr. Warren Huh and his team at UAB Gynecologic Oncology and Aveanna Hospice for their compassionate care.
