“ She sang for Mothers Day, You are the wind beneath my wings. I lost my Mom 4 years ago n had sang that on Mother's Day to my mom years ago n knew Sharon could sing it better than anyone.
When I ask her to sing it she said I would be honored to sing it n boy did she ever. There were tears all around in everyone's eyes.
That song will be even more special to us all now knowing that she got her wings . We will forever miss you girl!! We will meet you again one day.

“ Sharon was a great friend of 40 years. She was always upbeat and ready to sing, write and participate in church skits, choir, gospel quartet and praise team. She played church league ball with us and and played Bunco. I will miss her so much. She encouraged me and was an inspiration.

“ My condolences go out to the family of my beloved sister-in-law, whom I will never ever forget. She was the epitome of what you would call an Angel here on earth. Her loving kindness, care, compassion, understanding, empathy, counseling and most of all her love will be shared in heaven. I see her now as I write these memories of her, driving her little red pinto car, with her long beautiful dark hair flying in the wind. May choirs of Angels sing thee to thy rest, and Oh aren't they lucky to have you as part of that choir now too. I have you in my heart forever Christina, Love your sister-in-law Martha Zavala de Garcia
