“ Grandpa, we will all miss you. We will miss your great wealth of knowledge on just about any topic that comes up. Any issue there was, you always had a logical explanation for. It is good though you are in a place where you can just rest now.

“ Terry and his younger brother Dave (my husband) were close. Only 1 year separated them. When we all lived in Elm Grove, Dave & Terry fished & hunted the Wheeling Creek area.. often they would meet for a beer at Porters Bar which was on Kruger St. Between Paxton & Sycamore. When they got older they talked on the phone about their health, doctors and vitamins. Terry was a good man. - a good father & a good husband.
between Paxton & Sycamore I think

“ I'm so happy I got to meet my wifes grandpa. I'm so sad 😞 that he isn't with us anymore. Terry accepted me in his family. It was nice to talk to him. I'm glad he isn't suffering in this world. I'm trusting in Jesus he is in a better place.

“ Mr. Boyd is known to me as the father of my brother-in-law Tim Boyd. Mr. Boyd's choice of career paths made it possible for Tim and my sister Cheryl to meet. Their marriage expanded our family with much loved nieces and nephew and great niece and nephews. What a blessed family we have because of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd moving to Alabama. Much love and many prayers are being sent to Tim and family and Leslie. Connie Marchant Carver
