“ Robbie

I am very sorry that I was unable to pay my respects to Terry and you at the service today.

His illness progressed much faster than anyone other than God would know. I hope that you enjoy the flowers and that they will continue to bloom year after year to remind you of the wonderful memories with your beloved husband. Please remember that the shoulder you thought you would need upon his diagnosis is still here for you.

My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with you in the darker days that are sure to come as you search for peace. It is my hope that you will find comfort in knowing that you were blessed with a wonderful man and although you did not want to let him go, he will suffer no more.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

With deepest sympathy

“ Mrs Robbie (my "Rosaleeta)

Although I did not know Terry as well as I know you, I know how sad you must be....I was sad when I did not get to see you but not the same kind.

God is amazing Mrs Robbie...he chooses people to come to him to relieve their suffering and he makes them a new home of everlasting joy.

Not only do you have memories to comfort you, you have us.

I will be thinking of you today....and remember in the hardest things we do...love sees us through.

Love

“ Robbie,
I am so sorry to hear about Terry. He was such a joy to talk to, and work with. I am so fortunate to have been able to know him. I can remember when i was new in the business how i would pick Terry's brain when we were on torch trips or he had made a visit to the Dalton office. It's not often that a man of his experience will take time to share things that he knows with young agents like myself at that time. Terry is one of the reasons i am successful today, and i am so thankful for Him.

God Bless!

“ Robbie,
Joan and I are so deeply saddened, words could not express our sorrow.

He was a mentor, a man you could confide in, but more importantly a friend. I thank God for bringing both of you into our life. We have shared so many laughs and now we must grief his passing.

May Eternal rest, grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.##imported-begin##Joan and Julio Garrido##imported-end##

After Glow (A tribute to Terry) From Jim and Evelyn

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

*I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles
when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun af happy memories that I leave when life is done.##imported-begin##Jim and Evelyn
