

Tex L. Praytor

August 11, 1970 - May 3, 2024

Tex L. Praytor, age 53, passed away on May 3, 2024. Tex grew up in Shannon, Alabama, where he made many life long friends. Tex loved riding motorcycles of any kind and he also loved playing guitar. Tex was great at any kind of wood work, including building and remodeling. He could pretty much do anything he set his mind to, and everything always turned out beautifully.

Tex was preceded in death by his son, Tyler Praytor, his father, Johnny Praytor and his brother, Troy Praytor.

Tex loved his family and would always make it a point to tell us how much he loved and appreciated us. He would always leave random notes, for us to find, just to remind us. Tex is survived by his wife of 35 years, Rhonda Praytor; daughter, Ali (Joe) Edwards, mother, Bonnie Praytor, brother, Rodney Aldrich, mother-in-law, Janice Muir. He is also survived by his four grandchildren that he adored: Skarlett Praytor, Gracie Praytor, Ryan Praytor and Navy Praytor, who gave him his favorite name "Pop Pop" as well as his grand dog Dolly.

Tex also leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and many special friends

“ Tex was a Kind Loving Man. A Good Family Man. I could go on forever talking about what a good man he was, but I won't take up that much space because it would be pages. Recently I was most impressed by what a wonderful Son he was. He lived up a hill, across from his mother, my aunt Bonnie. She, a few months ago, broke her hip. He and his wife Rhonda were right on top of things taking care of her. What I found so sweet was when I would go to visit her, I could set my watch on how many minutes it would take for him to jump on his golf cart, rush down to see who was at her house and if it was ok for them to be there. What an honor to have a son so caring ! And 9 times out of 10, he had at least 1 or more of his grandchildren with him. He seemed to love everybody. He was just so sweet. He is going to be missed so much. People like him are hard to find now. I know he is in Heaven, with Jesus, or this would be unbearable. Cousin, Linda Praytor Rayburn
