

Travis Jerrell Sanders

November 25, 1936 - January 9, 2026

Travis Jerrell Sanders passed away peacefully on January 9th, 2026, surrounded by his daughters and loved ones. He was 89 years old. To some, he was a veteran. A man who proudly served his country and guarded secrets he would never tell. He would see a young woman while on leave, who would capture his mind and his heart. He and Margaret (Jeanne) Sanders would be married in 1956. He would continue on to stay in the service another two years, taking the sense of duty it instilled in him to build a new life for his new family. To others, he was a man of faith. His trust in the LORD only grew throughout his life; a comfort we find now, knowing that He is present and rejoicing at the face of God. While his absence is deep and profound, there is a great peace in knowing his new and perfect wholeness and his reunion with all those who have walked before him. To his family, he was a jokester. To walk into his home would be to hear his laughter, his endless stories, and maybe, if you were lucky, a surprisingly good Donald Duck impression.

He was a man of devotion, of service, of duty, of endless kindness and deep, abounding love.

My cousins, my brother, and I, we called him "Grandad"

Jerrell is survived by Chere Sanders Gillham, Jerri (Jack) McCombs, Kerri (Kevin) Bradford, Merri (Matthew) Pitman, 10 grandchildren (Shelly, Maria, Brandon, Brittney, Courtney, Kelsey,

“ Mr. Sanders was a second dad to me during my teenage years. He was such a loving, sweet and funny man. He was also just as strict with me as he was with his other 5 daughters. The Sanders family played such a role in my formative years. I was so blessed to have them in my life. I am still blessed to have them in my life now, with the exception of Jerrell and Jeanne. And to have been treated by both of them as a 6th daughter meant the world to me. Mr. Sanders will be missed dearly. I love you and will miss you so much. Thank you for everything you and your beautiful family did for me and for being such a blessing and important part of my life.
