

Tremayne Slater Fancher

August 25, 1956 - November 26, 2021

Tremayne Slater Fancher, known as Butch, passed away November 26, 2021, at age 65, due to complications of metastatic prostate cancer. He is preceded in death by grandparents, T.J. and Alma Gradis Stamps. He is survived by his wife, Vonnie Fancher, and daughter, Jillian Lopez (Joshua), parents, Truman and Jacqueline Fancher, three brothers; Truman (Liz), Tripp, and Trent (Jennifer), one sister, Traci McArdle (Tim), and several nephews. Butch worked in the auto industry for many years, enjoyed weekly poker games with friends, and enjoyed watching the Braves play. He lit up every room with his joyous spirit and was a friend to all, who will be truly missed. We're so glad he got to see the Braves win the World Series.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Prostate Cancer Foundation <https://PCF-Curing Together | PCF | Prostate Cancer Foundation | Prostate Cancer Symptoms>

PCF-Curing Together | PCF | Prostate Cancer Foundation | Prostate Cancer Symptoms

Offers free prostate cancer guides, prostate cancer news and other helpful resources for patients and their families.