

Tristen Lovett Sloan

January 30, 1990 - March 26, 2024

The family of Tristen Lovett Sloan sadly announces the passing of our beloved Tristen on March 26, 2024.

Tristen was born to the union of Kletis Lovett Sloan and Annette Marie Chism on January 30, 1990 in Camp Springs, Maryland. His early years were spent in Naples, Italy where his father served as a US Marine. Later they lived in North Carolina before moving to Atlanta, Georgia. Tristen and his younger siblings came to live with their grandparents in McCalla, Alabama. He attended Vance Elementary School, Brookwood

Middle and High School. He worked in Texas and Kentucky in construction before moving to Pittsburg for training as a medical tech and EMT.

He and his brother were also well known in the music business for their support and promotions of shows for most Southeastern and Atlantic Coast States. His father, grandfather, sister, daughter Aaliyah and a group of family close friends thank you for all of your support during this difficult time for us.

A celebration of Tristen's life is planned by his friends in the music business on April 27, 2024 at 6:00 PM at LCY 3614 6th Ave South, Birmingham, AL 35222
