“ I only knew Tylor for a short time. I meet him this Summer during our math class at Shelton State. I knew when I first talked to him that he loved Jesus. He helped me so much with math problems. Even though I did not know him as a best friend, I will forever hold our time together in my heart. Love you Tylor and think about you everyday. I know you are having a blast with Jesus!!!###imported-begin###Courtney Simpson###imported-end##
