“ Roni and I grew as friends sharing thoughts on raising our children, life and the love of God. She was a great inspiration and I remember the day she was diagnosed with Breast Cancer and she asked me why. I told her that the only answer I had was that God wanted to use her to make a statement, and believe me he did. I was diagnosed with breast cancer this year just before she had to quit work. She WAS AND STILL IS my inspiration and I have missed getting to talk with her like we use to, and I will certainly missed her now but I look forward to the day we meet again in Heaven and as she told me, "I will be the beautiful one at the gate waiting for my friends and family to enter". She LOVED God and she wanted everyone that she knew to KNOW HIM.

Thank you God for sending this wonderful person to us.##imported-begin##Gwen Moore##imported-end##

“ *"Absent from the body, present with the Lord" ~ 2 Cor 5:8
Roni always had a smile and held me accountable for the things I said and did - that's a friend.
I remember when she e-mailed me and asked me to go skydiving. My reply was "Why would you want to jump from a perfectly good airplane?" We both had a laugh because she knew that I would never do something like that and I knew she would!!
Roni will be loved / missed ! But knowing she is with GOD is comforting.##imported-begin##Ruth Roberts##imported-end##*

“ Roni was such an awesome woman to know and work with. She truly loved her daughter and her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I pray God's Grace, that is sufficient and His Peace that surpasses all understanding, over her loved ones during this time of sorrow.

Continued prayers In His Name,

“ I worked with Roni @ Blue Cross. She was a wonderful woman of God. She was the most driven woman I have ever meet. She was a true warrior of the battle she was fighting. My prayers are with both family and friends.##imported-begin##Tanya W.##imported-end##

“ Roni will truly be missed. Her laugh could be heard throughout our service area. Even when she was not feeling her best, she never complained. She is one of God's Angels now. I pray that her daughter and her family finds comfort in God during these tough times.##imported-begin##Andrea Parham##imported-end##

“ *"Absent from the body, present with the Lord" ~2 Cor 5:8
Roni always carried a smile no matter the circumstances.
She was a friend / co-worker who held me accountable for the things I did and said - that's a true friend.
I rememer when she wanted me to go sky diving and I my response was 'why would we want to jump out of a perfectly good airplane?'*###imported-begin###Ruth Roberts###imported-end##

“ Roni and I started at Blue Cross at the same time, in the same training class. We used to kid that we were the only ones left in our bunch, as most others had gone to other departments or other avenues. Roni's heart for her God was evident. She loved the Lord, her family, and friends. I know that she is healed and whole and we'll see her again. She will be missed, but the price you pay for love is grief. Roni, we'll never forget you, and your testimony and faith. Have fun, and give my Layah a kiss. :)###imported-
