“ I got my first computer when we lived aacross the street from Bob and Viginia and she was always helping me out with it. She was a fine Lady and was always full of cheer. My wife and I have missed being around Bob and Virginia. We have'nt seen them in about 7 years. We will one day see both of them again in HEAVEN. “ I will always remember Virginia as the perky blonde with a winning smile in the ticket booth of the Grand Theater. It seemed we went to the movie quite a bit so you could talk to her. Bob you were mister cool.

Pat remembers when the four of us went to Cullman on a picnic. The cake that they baked would not stay together and they stuck tooth picks in it to keep it from sliding apart. Those were the days.

“ Virginia was the best of friends-from growing up on the same block in Jonesboro to living across the street as young married couples. Life was like an open ended vacation with our families!

We loved traveling together and just doing everyday things. None compared to the days of our painting, crafting and especially singing together. It seems that any occasion would bring a song to mind and we would all sing. I know that Virginia's beautiful voice has been added to the Holy choir above. "Hold a place for us, for we know the best is yet to come".

We love you dearly.
