

Wallace Edwin Prophitt

September 19, 1952 - September 30, 2022

“Wally” Wallace Edwin Prophitt completed his earthly mission and went on to meet his Heavenly Father on September 30, 2022, at the age of 70 at DCH Regional Medical Center. Wally is survived by his wife Dona of 47 years, daughter Kaci Sayers, son-in-law Joshua Sayers, son Chad Prophitt, grandchildren, Sawyer, EvaRae & Brooks Prophitt, brothers Wendall & Jerome Prophitt, many nieces and nephews along with extended family. Wally was the actual definition of the word service. He loved God and loved to serve others. Wally was the branch that remained connected to the vine, and God produced all the fruits of the spirit through Wally in abundance to this world. Wally absolutely loved people and had an infectious smile that showed his genuine love to everyone. He adored his family, he guided, protected and provided in every manner possible. Wally loved the water, loved sharing activities on the water with his wife, kids and grandkids. Wally’s legacy of love and service will live on. Wally served God and allowed God to use his vessel as a Light to this world, so that others may know the Great Love of Wally’s Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. A viewing for Wally will be at McCalla Funeral Home on Monday, October 3rd, 2022, from 5-8 pm. Funeral Service will be October 4th, 2022, at Hopewell Road Church of God of Prophecy at 11:00 am with graveside to follow service. Pallbearers (Jason McCartha, Justice McCartha, Nathan Prophitt, Jonathan Prophitt, Lee Pounds, Clifton McWhorter) Honorary Pallbearers (Nursing Staff – DCH Regional 7 South, Nursing Staff – DCH Regional TSICU, Dr. John Miller, Dr. Mohammad Azam,

When I think of Wally, I immediately see his smile that could light up a room and the warmth of his sincere spirit and servants heart. Prayers for the family.
