

William Aaron Colvin

May 4, 1973 - April 4, 2014

William Aaron Colvin, 40 went to be with his Lord on Friday, April 4, 2014. He was preceded in death by his father, Bill Colvin, siblings, Brett, Lisa, and Lori. Known to his friends as Aaron, he centered his life around his family, and was a member of Hepzibah Baptist Church. Aaron was a coal miner belonging to the UMWA. An avid sports fan, Aaron enjoyed any game that involved a ball especially Alabama football. He enjoyed fishing, gardening and watching movies with his children. Aaron is survived by his high school sweetheart, Dianne Colvin, who became his wife sixteen years ago, one son, Zachary Aaron Colvin, one daughter and best friend, Hannah Faith Colvin, parents; Edie and Hugh Upton, Step-mother, Frankie Colvin, in-laws; David and Ann Walker, three brothers; Larry, Justin, John, three sisters; Faith (Jeff) Peterman, Charity (Jim) O'Reilly, Christy Knighten, one brother-in-law, Keith (Katie) Walker, one sister-in-law, Angela (Martin) Forsyth, grandmother, Edna Colvin, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Funeral service will be 11:00 AM Friday, April 11, 2014 at McCalla Memorial Funeral Home with burial following at Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Thursday, April 10, 2014 from 6:00 to 8:00 PM.

Cemetery Details

Pleasant Grove Cemetery

Abernant, AL