“ I guess some of my most vivid memories is back in the day Uncle Bill would be chasing me and all the cousins out of the old barn at Granny's house. He would yell out "I'm going to get Granny out here if you don't listen to me!" Usually that's all it took for us to clear the barn just to make it down to the "other barn".

Later every time I saw him he would ask me why the Georgia Bulldogs cant compete with Alabama. I would say well Uncle Bill I guess because you are a Alabama Fan and not a Georgia fan. If you were I'm sure they would do much better. He would laugh and then the conversation always was about the family.
