“ All the musicians who knew Bill should be grateful for the times we had together. Through the years I worked for him in the Giattina Orchestra his passion for the music, care for the musicians and leadership were an inspiration -- he possessed great skill at herding cats. My condolences to his beautiful family -- who by the way, he loved deeply.

“ Bill was a long-time friend and an ardent supporter of the Alabama Cavaliers. He labored long to keep the alumni group going during low member times. He was a great musician, educator and trombone player. I will miss his easy laugh and stories. John Mizelle, Mary Esther FL
