“ Travis was my buddy and my best friend. We would call each other every day. He would always try to catch me drinking coffee but it never happened. We would get a wild hair and take off to casino every once in a while but we never made it to stay long. I miss him already and will never forget him. Travis we will always love you

Yesterday was the memories I will always remember cherish and miss of me and Travis. He loved his family and friends with all of his heart but if he didn't like you he would always tell you. Travis was so proud of his family and would always tell me he was going with Brian to listen to him sing. His last wishes was to go spend time with his kids grandkids and great grandson. He got his wish and I'm so proud that he did. He would call my sons his boys and my daughter his girl. We all loved him so much. God must have really needed a great Angel and he took Travis to feel that spot. My buddy and my best friend we will always love and miss you. You will never be forgotten for as long as I live. I want to say thank you to his family for letting us have the time we had Travis in our life. We love you Travis
